DREAM ACT.

Republican presidential hopeful, Mitt Romney, trying to shore up his conservative credentials, stated categorically that he would veto the DREAM ACT. I guess he wants to "fire" the innocent children who came to the U.S. with their parents while they were young.

Three and Ten Year Bar Waiver Applications May be Able to be Filed Stateside.

The USCIS has issued PROPOSED regulations that would permit an alien to file an application to waive the three and ten year bars to admission for having been unlawfully present in the U.S. for 181 days or one year or more. USCIS believes that a final rule can be issued before the end of the year. If this policy is put into effect, an alien could file for the waiver before departing the U.S. and presumably not depart and not continue consular processing should the application for the waiver be denied.

Miami Office of ICE Chief Counsel States That it Will Consider Requests for Prosecutorial Discretion for Aliens Present Three Years or More.

Jeffrey N. Brauerman, formerly a United States Immigration Judge, has served as Regional Counsel for the Southern Region of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service and Chief Legal Officer for its Miami District office.
